The Society of the Sons of New York gave a notable reception last evening at Tammany Hall. The society was organized on July 28, 1884, by a few earnest men, an ong whom were George W. Myers, William Belkizer George String, William A. Phillips, Charles W. Lane, Eugene Johnston and Jeremiah Brown. Its objects are primarily social and benevolent, but the mainspring of its being is indicated in that clause in its constitution which reads: "Only persons of distinction or note in connection with the moral, social political or intellectual advancement of the colored race shall be eligible to honorary membership." CITY ISLAND'S POSTMASTER GONE.

He Borrows Money and Asks that the News be Gently Broken to Ilis Wife, George Semler, Postmaster at City Island,

Westchester County, has been missing since last Wednesday, and the presumption is that he has gone to Canada. The only news received from him was in the form of an unsigned letter addressed to his assistant. It was dated Rochester, N. Y., and merely said: "Break the news gently to my wife, and God help her." Mr. Semler is about sixty-five years of age, and was appointed postmaster soon after President Cieveland took office. The salary President Cleveland took office. The salary is $2,000 a year. His bondsmen are James Hyatt and Counsellor Lamberton, each of whom justified in $10,000. They took possession of the office yesterday, and to-day will notify the Post Office Inspectors to make an examination of his accounts.

Recently Semler persuaded his wife to obtain an additional mortgage of $400 on her house, telling her that he wanted to keep some ready money in his safe. From one of his friends he a week or so any horrowal are to appear at the Academy of Music April his friends he a week or so ago borrowed $450, and from another $200. A cursory ex-amination of the office shows that he failed to make his usual monthly report for March Washington.

" Dorothy" to Say Farewell. Mr. James W. Morrissey, who so ably represents

Mr. J. C. Duff, is in the city again and has made the Standard Theatre his headquarters. He is full of enthusiasm over the success of "Dorothy" or enthusiasm over the successor Dorothy throughout the country, and predicts a good season at the Grand Opera-House next week, when Lillian Russeil, Agnes Stone, Rose Leighton, Marie Hatton, Eugene Oudin, John Brand, William Hamilton and Tunny Harry Paulion will make harge audiences happy. The hunting scene in the second act will be made mirre realistic by the appearance of a pack of hounds on the stage. This will be the last week of the season.

A one-eared, black-and-wnite jack-rabbit was left at a Fulton street i stel yesterday for Prof.
